

Nowadays, many headlines hit the newspaper on the topic of 单词短语. This issue has sparked a huge debate on whether 一句话照抄题目,后面复制粘贴. From my own point of view, I believe that 复制粘贴.

On the one hand, there are numerous solid reasons why 题目主干句改写的立场句, such as +原因 1(名词短语或动名词). Although potentially negative impacts of 单词短语 should be taken into account, I still reckon that 单词短语 has/have(二选一) in many ways enriched/harmed(二选一) people's lives. For example, a well-known American scientist once said that 单词短语 could make our lives more efficient. Moreover, 单词短语 can broaden our horizons. Besides, it enlarges our scope of knowledge. Finally, it enriched our spiritual civilization.

On the other hand, those who argue against the design of 题目主干句改写的立场句 hold a different opinion. In the first place, it can be claimed that 反对的观点. In the second place, as far as schools are concerned, the ultimate aim of schools is to shape young people into responsible people in the future. As a result, local governments and international organizations should make a joint effort to reach a consensus to make sure that this situation will develop in the right direction.

In a nutshell, while there are many strong arguments on both sides, I still firmly believe that 复制粘贴.
